Language

5.LA.4a Use context clues and other strategies to help determine word meaning.

5.LA.5c Use the relationship between particular words to better understand the words.

Reading Comprehension Lesson

The Mermaids' Lagoon: Excerpt from Peter Pan by J.M. Barrie

Introduction:

In the book Peter Pan, Peter appears to Wendy one night and tries to convince her to leave London and go to Neverland with him. Neverland is an imaginary country filled with mythical creatures and “Lost Boys” who refuse to grow up. One of the ways in which Peter Pan tempts her to join him is by telling her that there are mermaids in Neverland. Wendy is very excited by the idea of getting to see mermaids.

After Wendy and her brothers join Peter and the Lost Boys in Neverland, Peter often disappears and returns “with mermaid scales still sticking to him, and yet he’s not able to say for certain what had been happening. Later, when Wendy is badly shot with an arrow, Peter begs her to get better, so he can show her the mermaids.

What can be inferred by reading the introduction?

- Wendy and her brothers want to see mermaids.
- Peter does not like the mermaids.
- Wendy doesn't want to see mermaids.

Vocabulary in Context:

- Mermaids are mythical creatures with the upper body of a woman and the tail of a fish, covered in scales. Mermaids or sirens are usually described as beautiful and musical beings. They are said to have such lovely voices that sailors are drawn to them by their songs. Some stories also claim that mermaids can predict the future.
- Mythical creatures, like dragons and fairies, are imaginary, that means are not real, and form part of folktales and fantasy stories

I- Activity:

Think of other mythical creatures like the mentioned above

The Mermaid Lagoon

(1) If you shut your eyes and are a lucky one, you may see at times a shapeless pool of lovely pale colors suspended in the darkness; then if you squeeze your eyes tighter, the pool begins to take shape, and the colors become so vivid that with another squeeze they must go on fire. But just before they go on fire you see the lagoon. This is the nearest you ever get to it on the

According to paragraph one, "Neverland is an imaginary place." Which detail from this paragraph indicates that Neverland is an imaginary place?

- a) "see the surf and hear the mermaids singing"
- b) "pool of lovely pale colors"
- c) "the nearest you ever get to it on mainland"

mainland, just one heavenly moment; if there could be two moments you might see the surf and hear the mermaids singing.

(2) The children often spent long summer days on this lagoon, swimming or floating most of the time, playing the mermaid games in the water, and so forth. You must not think from this that the mermaids were on friendly terms with them: on the contrary, it was among Wendy's lasting regrets that all the time she was on the island she never had a civil word from one of them. When she stole softly to the edge of the lagoon she might see them by the score, especially on Marooners' Rock, where they loved to bask, combing out their hair in a lazy way that quite irritated her; or she might even swim, on tiptoe as it were, to within a yard of them, but then they saw her and dived, probably splashing her with their tails, not by accident, but intentionally.

(3) They treated all the boys in the same way, except of course Peter, who chatted with them on Marooners' Rock by the hour and sat on their tails when they got cheeky. He gave Wendy one of their combs.

(4) The most haunting time at which to see them is at the turn of the moon, when they utter strange wailing cries; but the lagoon is dangerous for mortals then, and until the evening of which we have now to tell, Wendy had never seen the lagoon by moonlight, less from fear, for of course Peter would have accompanied her, than because she had strict rules about everyone being in bed by seven. She was often at the lagoon, however, on sunny days after rain, when the mermaids come up in extraordinary numbers to play with their bubbles. The bubbles of many colors made in rainbow water they treat as balls, hitting them gaily from one to another with their tails, and trying to keep them in the rainbow till they burst. The goals are at each end of the rainbow, and the keepers only are allowed to use their hands. Sometimes a dozen of these games will be going on in the lagoon at a time, and it is quite a pretty sight.

Activity II: After Reading the story, answer the following exercises on details carefully.

1. Read paragraph 2 and tell which are the activities the boys did in the lagoon:

- a) combing their hair
- b) swimming, floating, and playing mermaid games
- c) splashing their tails

2. According to paragraph 4, why do you think Wendy was not seen the lagoon by moonlight before?

- a) She was very strict about bedtime.
- b) Peter would not accompany her.
- c) She was afraid.

3. List three or more things that the mermaids often do in the lagoon.
